

Executive Women's Empowerment Program

The Executive Women's Empowerment Program is a series of live and virtual events tailored to inspire and motivate outstanding emerging & high-performing female executives to take the next step in their own leadership development. The program empowers these women to propel their presence and own their voice through the foundational 3 Pillars.

The goals for this program are:

- Build relationships between emerging & high-performing women executives, providing opportunities for peer mentoring and networking.
- Instill a sense of urgency and promote action planning for career development and progression.
- Demonstrate a strong commitment to the success of an organization's female executives and overall diversity and inclusion.
- Create awareness and understanding of successful models of female leadership including communication style, approach to delegation, etc.
- Support greater promotion and marketing of emerging & high-performing female talent.
